

THE GREAT ETHIOPIAN RUN (GER)

November 18, 2018

Essentially a mass-participation fun-run for about 44,000 participants with 500 places
reserved for chip-timed elites

A Security Checkpoint

Only participants wearing race event shirts get through.

Excited participants heading for their starting corral
after passing through the security frisking station

The event was part fashion parade...

...and pride in national colours.

Joyful celebration
with a sobering message

Printed on these shirts UN 2018 Women

I didn't see these ladies, the picture was in the GER facebook site, but the UN in Ethiopia did partner with the GER to organize a run on March 11, 2018 under the theme Violence-Free Life: It's My Rights.

<https://tinyurl.com/yc6bopa9>

According to Ethiopian Demographic Health Survey, prevalence of spousal violence (domestic violence) is 35%; one third of ever-married women reported that they have experienced violence from their husband or partner. The report also says 47% of girls aged 15-19 have undergone Female Genital Mutilation /Cutting.

Perhaps this joyful image reflects a new optimism throughout the land. On April 2, 2018 Dr. Abiy Ahmed became the nation's prime minister and quickly appointed women to head half of its ministries. He has since brokered peace with Eritrea (Eritrean athletes were in this year's GER for the first time) and has now appointed the country's first female president.

Start of a wheel chair conga line or just hitching a free ride?

Happy Medallers

On return to the Addis Regency, happy recipients of 2 of the approximately 44,000 medals are ready to cleanup, relax and enjoy companionship with fellow guests and the hotel's ever friendly and helpful staff.
